19 ORDER REGARDING BILLS OF 20 COSTS

21
22 The Court has received the parties' respective objections to the bills of costs submitted
23 in this case. Although the costs have not yet been taxed by the Clerk, given the legal objections
24 raised by BNSF, the Court construes the parties' objections as motions to tax costs and shall 25 resolve the matter in the first instance. It is HEREBY ORDERED, that each party shall submit 26 a response to the objections filed by no later than August 19, 2005. The parties' responses shall 27 not exceed ten pages. The Court shall then take the matter under submission.
